Absorbed insulin first to liver then systemic Common hepatic duct circulation-Pancreas senses incomming meal Gallbladder Stomach: Acid, pepsin Tablet with enteric coating Cystic duct Common bile duct Pancreatic duct: trypsin, chymotrypsin, Duodenum: & carbonate. Tablet dissolves, insulin Tablet releases insulin and degradation, epithelial insulin absorption excipients. Absorbed insulin ends in portal vein and travels to liver.